

Lean Six Sigma Yellow Belt

A 1-Day or
2-Day
Module

Introduction To Lean Six Sigma

Yellow Belts can expect to get involved in Lean / Six Sigma projects which are being led by Green or Black Belts. Normally Yellow Belts are key members of the improvement teams.

To fully contribute Yellow Belts need to understand the basic techniques and the language of these methodologies.

Yellow Belt training is a way of widening the application of the Lean Six Sigma across the organisation.
