

Lean Six Sigma Black Belt

10 x 2-day
Modules

Become A Recognised Expert Practitioner In Lean Six Sigma !

As a working Black Belt you will :-

- Be trained to an exceptional level in process improvement and problem solving
- Have demonstrated your abilities through delivering real performance improvement
- Lead problem solving efforts in your organisation.
- Be challenged by your management to solve the toughest issues
- Be expected to coach, mentor, even train others
- Be ready to deploy a comprehensive set of improvement tools
- Have the right mix of technical and people skills to successfully deliver projects

Our Black Belt training is designed to give you all the tools and skills you need. Flexibility is built in through our modular design. The training has been developed over a number of years and represents best practice in this field. We like it to be interesting, challenging, and fun. The feedback we get is outstanding !

See also our Open Courses !

This is in-depth training and requires some discussion with senior management regarding expectations and support. There are also some simple but important decisions required regarding certification.

There is a need to provide Minitab software during the course.

Comprehensive course manuals are provided.
